Ferdinand and Imelda Head wristwatches and desk clock (1970s) by unnamed Swiss watchmaker

Gold- and silver-plated coins embossed with imprints of Ferdinand and Imelda Marcos' faces; Roman numeral dials; leather strap; dagger hour and minute hands; Swiss mechanical movement. Brass-encased table clock with the name "Imelda Romualdez Marcos" in capital letters encircling the embossed head of the former First Lady in the center. Stick hour and minute hands with a white arrow mystery hand.

Both timepieces were made in Switzerland and given away to guests to mark the 25th wedding anniversary of the Marcoses in 1979. Aside from having a floating mystery hand, the table clock shows the face of Imelda disappearing and re-appearing on the dial.
